A CRIMINAL'S FLIGHT.

A Fact Quite Equal to Fiction—Captured at Last.

[By United Press.]

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, April 11.—A Pinkerton detective arrived here with R. E. W. Smith, a defaulter of the Corbin Banking Company, New York, whom he arrested after an exciting chase over half the continent. Smith left New York with a woman, went to Natchez, Miss., started a plantation, and after losing a deal of money failed. He then drew a number of drafts on the bank he represented, in the name of old customers, and secured thirty thousand dollars, with which he fled. Detectives followed the couple to New Orleans, to New Mexico, then to California and along the coast to Victoria, B. C., and across the States to Vancouver, where Smith was arrested for bringing stolen money to Canada.

A GREAT STRIKE.

The Windy City the Scene of a Big Struggle.

[By United Press.]

CHICAGO, April 11.—The great carpenters' strike is on in dead earnest. At its meeting last evening the carpenters' and builders' association declined to consider the journeymen's proposition to arbitrate differences between them, or to recognize the union in any way whatever, and from to-day the struggle between the strikers and the association settles down to a trial of strength. The association decided to immediately begin work with non-union men, who were willing to work, and this action promises trouble in the near future.

ANOTHER HOWL.

This Time by Philadelphia Manufacturers.

[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—A hearing was granted to a committee of ingrain carpet manufacturers from Philadelphia by the ways and committee to-day. The committee consisted of Messrs. Duran, Pollock, Crow, Mason and the Messrs. Bromley. They stated that they represented 4,000 looms. They claimed the duty on raw material for carpet stuffs would make the raw material cost more than the present cost of the carpets.

SPECIAL LICENSES AGAIN.

The Particular Licenses Which Fall Under the Provisions of Alderman Holding's Resolution.

THE CHRONICLE has had numerous inquiries with respect to the special license taxes which Alderman Holding proposes to repeal. For the benefit of those interested, the taxed objects which fall under the provisions of the resolution are given. If the resolution shall be adopted, of course the license taxes which are now levied on them will be repealed.

Upon the proprietors of each hotel with a capacity for fifty or more guests, twenty-five dollars, and upon the proprietors of other hotels, twelve and one-half dollars each.

Upon the proprietors of each restaurant or eating house, twelve dollars and fifty cents.

Upon every auctioneer or crier of goods at public auction, a license tax of twenty-five dollars a year. Provided, that this section shall not conflict with the provisions of section twenty-two hundred and eighty-four of The Code.

Every person who erects goods at public auction under the provisions of this section, without having first obtained a license therefor from the chief of police, shall be fined fifty dollars for every offense.

Upon every stock and bond broker, sewing machine company, dealer in musical instruments, keepers of sales stables or stock yards, doing business in the city, a license tax of twenty-five dollars a year.

Every person who follows any of the business vocations of the city as mentioned in this section, without first having obtained from the chief of police a license therefor, shall be fined twenty-five dollars for every offense.

Sec. 19. Upon every lawyer, physician, dentist, cotton broker, bill-poster, street huckster, photographer, merchant or produce broker, ice dealer, dealer in wood and coal or either, insurance company or insurance agency for every company represented, a license tax of ten dollars a year.

These are the objects which will come up for reconsideration at the special meeting next Thursday night.

Alderman Holding's original resolution proposed the repeal of the license on the following objects:

Upon the owner or proprietor of each omnibus drawn by four or more horses, used for livery purposes or for the transportation of persons for hire, fifteen dollars.

Upon the owner or proprietor of each two-horse carriage, hack, phaeton or other vehicle, by whatever name called, used as above stated, five dollars.

Upon the owner or proprietor of each buggy, wagon or other vehicle drawn by one horse, used as above stated, two dollars and fifty cents.

Upon the owner or proprietor of every two-horse dray or wagon, used for the transportation of freight, or baggage, or any article for hire, five dollars.

Upon the owner or proprietor of every one-horse dray or wagon, used as stated in paragraph above, three dollars.

The repeal of the tax on these, however, was opposed by such a decided majority at the meeting on last Thursday night that alderman Holding expunged them from his resolution.

He voted in favor of the repeal of the tax on all of them, and therefore cannot move for a reconsideration. If, however, there shall appear at the meeting on next Thursday night a strong sentiment in favor of the repeal of the license tax on other objects and businesses Mr. Holding will ask some member of the board who voted against the repeal of the tax on these objects to move for a reconsideration, so they may come before the board again.

The resolution leaves the tax on bar-rooms, pool and billiard tables, skating rinks, shooting galleries, bowling alleys, pawn shops, junk dealers, circuses, shows, peddlers, itinerant merchants and like matters.

FOURTEEN HUNDRED STRIKERS

Are Trying to See What Concert of Action Will Do.

[By United Press.]

NEW YORK, April 11.—One of the largest strikes that ever took place in this city in the building line was inaugurated to-day the board of walking delegates, in order to sustain the housemen's union as against the firm of Paulsen & Eger, who signed an agreement to comply with union rules and afterwards refused to keep it. Upwards of fourteen hundred housemen, plumbers, gas fitters, steam fitters, carpenters, stair builders, painters, varnishers, marble cutters, hod-hoisting machinery engineers, electric wireman, tile layers, framers, &c., refused to sumo work at one o'clock on all the buildings upon which work is being done by Paulsen & Eger.

A BANK FOR BURLINGTON.

Other Improvements—The Town Continues to Grow.

[Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.]

BURLINGTON, N. C., April 11.—The following resolution was adopted at the last annual meeting of the stockholders of the Morehead Banking Co. at Durham:

"Resolved, That the capital stock of the Morehead Banking Co. be increased to $150,000 for the purpose of enlarging said company to do business in Burlington, Alamance county, and that the citizens be given an option on $25,000 of the $50,000 increase in stock for 60 days from the 1st of April, 1890, it being understood that subscriptions shall be paid as follows: One-half cash and the balance in monthly installments at 10 per cent., with interest at 8 per cent. from April 1st.

Resolved further, that if at the end of 60 days the citizens of Alamance county shall fail to take advantage of this option then the stock which has not been subscribed for by them is to be first offered to the old stockholders in proportion to their present holdings.

Resolved further, that when stock subscriptions to the amount of $10,000 shall have been made by the citizens of Alamance, then immediately steps shall be taken to establish the Morehead Banking Co. in Burlington on an equitable basis."

On the strength of this our citizens began to stir and Wednesday night last the list footed up $12,000.

New buildings are the order of the day; they go up so rapidly that many know nothing of them till lumber is put in position.

Our branch of the North Carolina Building and Loan Association will aid us most heartily. Come to see us and spend a day.

EVICTED IRISHMEN

Will Soon be Under Their Own Roofs.

[By United Press.]

LONDON, April 11.—The formal opening of New Tipperary, the new Irish town established by the tenants evicted from the Smith-Barrett estate, has been further postponed, in order to put the finishing touches on the most important of the buildings. Already eighty residence buildings have been completed, and a number of shops are in process of fitting up. The preparations for the opening of the market to-morrow are very elaborate. The building is literally covered with evergreens and flowers.

Among the speakers who are to address the inhabitants of the new town are William O'Brien, Michael Davitt, Sir Thomas Esmonde, and several other nationalist leaders.

Mr. T. D. Sullivan, ex-lord mayor of Dublin, has written a poem for the occasion, which it is expected he will read himself.

Mr. Parrell has been elected an honorary member of the new town.

A DESPERATE DEED.

A Dastardly Attempt at Murder on a Louisiana River.

[By United Press.]

PINEVILLE, La., April 11.—This place is much excited over the desperate attempt of Willie Talbot, a sixteen year old boy, to kill six young ladies and gentlemen in the river Wednesday. The party had taken unwillingly a skiff left in Talbot's charge. Seeing the party in the skiff on the river he opened fire on them with a shotgun. Miss Ella Hardee and one eye shot out and Miss Cadde had her face filled with shot. Two of the young men were wounded but not seriously.

DURHAM'S DEPARTMENT.

The Slaying of the Negro in Smoky Hollow—Railway News, Personals, &c.

[By United Press.]

CHRONICLE BUREAU, DURHAM, N. C., April 11.—A further investigation of the Smoky Hollow tragedy was had before Justices Busbee and Angier, the defendants being Martha Ann Woodward, the female friend, who had charge of the house in which the unfortunate affair occurred, and Win. Killbrow, a frequent and welcome visitor at the said house. Mr. Jas. S. Manning appeared for Killbrow and Mr. R. B. Boone for Woodward. Both were ably defended. After a patient investigation these defendants were discharged, though the justices did not hesitate to say that the matter was considerably mixed. Woodward and Killbrow are friends and can readily call to their aid and assistance perjured witnesses enough to clear them of any charges. It is to be hoped that justice will prevail and the murderer be apprehended and punished.

The ladies are all flocking to the office of the Singer Sewing Machine company to see the display of fancy work made by a lady connected with that company. This display is something indeed elegant. The engineers of the L & D R. R. have been engaged for some days, not in locating the route of the Southern extension as has been stated, but in changing the line so that it will come into town by way of Five Points and not in the eastern part of town.

Personals.

Mrs. R. T. Webb left to-day for Smithfield, where she will visit relatives. Miss Emily Norwood returned from Hillsboro on the noon train.

The Hon. Paul C. Cameron and lady passed down this morning. John M. Moring, Esq., of Patsboro, is in town.

Messrs. George S. Terrell and J. D. Creed, of your city, are in town to-day. Mr. John D. Bellamy, of the University, passed through this morning on his way to Raleigh.

VENERABLE HILLSBORO.

The Same "Yesterday, To-day and Forever" to Its Host of Boys.

[T. C. Anderson in Statesville Landmark.]

I saw in the last issue of your valuable paper a quotation from the Durham Globe in reply to an inquiry as to "how old Hillsboro?" In answer said the speaker: "I think Hillsboro holds on to her first principles better than any town in my knowledge; for," said he, "if Oremus should come back he would know her," or words that effect. No change! Now I am glad she don't change. A man or a fellow will often go back to his old home and see great changes, especially after many years—say 43, as in my case. Some stranger will meet you and say to you, in a way to get better acquainted, "Well, sir, you used to live here, I understand. Well, a great change since your day, you discover." You'll say, "yes." But I am glad no one says that at Hillsboro; but you look round and see the same old familiar surroundings and you feel at home. By, if there are any others of you out from the old home that gave us birth, let's meet, as 'tis spring time now and the stick weed will soon be knee high; and old to go in washing once more in old Eno, where 40, 50, 60 years ago we used to stay on the banks almost all day.

And now, Mr. Editor, 'twon't do to call the red of the then boys, for they are not there; most of them have crossed the river. Yes, dear old home, all those years I've never forgotten you. Old and unchanged as you are, hold on; be yourself, for there is in history more grand maelstrom there and about there than other town in the State can boast. I still long to see the place of my birth and the first 20 years of my life—old Hillsboro.

Col. Saunders at Wilmington.

The Wilmington Messenger says: We called to see yesterday our old schoolmate, Col. William L. Saunders, who is confined to his bed at The Orton.

We had not met him since 1876, when he first came to Wilmington. We talked pleasantly over old times and renewed an old friendship. We were sorry to learn that he had been down since October, but we were glad to find him so cheerful in the midst of very trying affliction. The old time humor would come out, and the fun was contagious. We hope his visit here will prove of signal benefit to him. He is a man of fine capacity, and is doing an important work for North Carolina in the editing of the "Colonial Records." Thus far eight volumes have been edited, and the seventh and eighth will soon be ready. Since November, and in spite of his physical sufferings and confinement to his bed, Col. Saunders has read 1,800 pages of proof.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

A Virginia Contested Election Case Before the House.

[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 11.—In the House to-day Mr. Lacey, of Iowa, called up the contested election case of Waddell vs. Wise, from the Richmond, Va., district, and made an argument in favor of Mr. Waddell, the republican contestant.

Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, supported the resolution of a majority of the committee, which declares the seat vacant. After reviewing the case, he branched off into a discussion of the race question, asserting the superiority of the Caucasian race, and criticizing the republicans of the North for having done no political favors for the colored man.

Mr. Morse, of Massachusetts, denied this and said that colored men had frequently sat in the Massachusetts legislature.

Mr. Greenhalge, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Bergen, of New Jersey, spoke in favor of the contestant, and Mr. Crisp, of Georgia, gave an able presentation of the case of Mr. Wise, the sitting member, from a legal standpoint.

Mr. E. B. Taylor, of Ohio, discussing the race question, asked if the condition of affairs at the South could always remain so, and the country exist. He would have rather have a democratic house honestly elected than to have affairs as they stand.

Without action on the case the House at 5 o'clock took a recess to 7:30 p. m., the night session for the consideration of private pension bills.

Bill to Abolish the National Banking System.

[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Representative Walker, of Missouri, has introduced in the House a bill to abolish the national banking system, &c. It provides that from and after the approval of this act it shall not be lawful to grant a charter to any new national banking association, nor shall it be lawful to renew or reissue a charter to any national banking association now in existence.

As national banks go out of existence under the provisions of this act, and their notes are retired from circulation, or when any national banking association shall voluntarily surrender its charter, or all or any part of its circulation, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to cause to be issued, and paid out on demand against the United States, legal tender Treasury notes of the same denominations now provided by law double in amount the sum of the national bank notes thus retired, provided, however, that the total amount of legal tender Treasury notes so issued shall not exceed the sum of $300,000,000, inclusive of the amount of Treasury notes now outstanding.

THE LUTHERAN CONFERENCE.

It Opposes Compulsory School Laws.

[By United Press.]

LAPORTE, Ind., April 11.—Yesterday the second day of the German Lutheran conference was principally devoted to a discussion of the Bennett school law of Wisconsin and the question was still under consideration when the afternoon session closed. ## GREENSBORO.

Free Mail Delivery—The Fire Ladders—Improving the Road Law—The King's Daughters—The Kirkpatrick Shooting Case.

GREENSBORO, April 10.—The postmaster having announced that the receipts of his office entitled the city to a free delivery, the city fathers are preparing to have the houses numbered, so as to be ready when Uncle Sam gets in the notion to so favor us.

The firemen are drilling for the Charlotte celebration.

A fine electric fire alarm will be contracted for this week. Two companies now have representatives in the city.

The Steele company is surveying its land, and moving ahead with its grand plans.

The two townships of Morehead and Gilmer have adopted the Mecklenburg road law, bought the necessary machinery, and soon the roads leading into Greensboro, to the distance of six miles in every direction, will be in fine order.

The King's Daughters of this city have called for a State convention of this place on May 14th and 15th. All the delegates will be entertained free. There are five circles in Greensboro, and as it only requires ten to organize a State circle, it is believed the call will be attended with success.

The West End King's Daughters own a fine lot on Greene street, worth six hundred dollars, and have in cash and subscription fifteen hundred dollars, and expect to build a hospital this summer. The Evangeline Club is also working with them. The other three clubs have no especial object, save charity.

The Crown Cotton Mills expect to steam up to-day.

Judge Dick discharged all the defendants in the Orange negro murder, except Kirkpatrick, the man shot, and Patterson who shot the negro. They are needed for further developments. Kirkpatrick has gone North to have his eyes treated. One is a total loss and it is feared the sight of the other will also be blotted out.

The crowd in attendance upon the Federal court looks like the good old times just after the war. It is immense—motley—dispirited. Many are in wagons camping out.

...Rocky Mount Postoffice. (Wilmington Star.)

The Star's correspondent writes in reference to the postoffice at Rocky Mount, that it has been rumored there for several days that Sylvia Drake (col.) would be the postmaster, and the latest rumor now is that she has made her bond good by getting B. J. Keech, of Tarboro, to go in it, which makes the bond good and perfectly solid. "We learn the understanding was that his son was to have the entire management and that Sylvia would only appear as a figure head." It is not quite so humiliating to have a white man wait on us as it was with the negro Armstrong.

...Dropped Dead on the Jury. (Salisbury Watchman.)

Last week Mr. J. B. Lanier, accompanied by Hon. Charles Price, his attorney, went to Edenton to defend the case of Moore vs. Lanier. During the trial of the cause, and while Mr. Price was addressing the jury, a negro juror fell dead in his chair.

We are very glad that Mr. Price stands well enough with the administration to command a Federal office, since otherwise his dead shot might be classed as another Southern outrage. Mr. Price has always had grand rank for the power of his advocacy, but we have never known it to be fatal before.
